Children between the ages of six (6) and seventeen (17) years, both inclusive, must attend a public or private school.¹ A parent/guardian or legal custodian who believes that their child is not ready to attend school at the designated age of mandatory attendance may make application to the principal of the public school which the child would attend for a one (1) semester or one year deferral in required attendance. Any such deferral shall be reported to the director of schools by the principal.² Under certain circumstances, the Board may temporarily excuse students from complying with the provisions of the compulsory attendance law.³

Any child residing within the state who is or will be five (5) years of age on or before August 15 of the next/current school year, who makes application for admission, shall be enrolled in the school designated by the Board.⁴

If a child will be five (5) years of age on or before September 30, such child's parent(s)/legal guardian(s) may request that the child be admitted into kindergarten.⁵ Upon a request, the director of schools shall administer an evaluation and examination. If the results indicate that the child is sufficiently mature emotionally and academically, then the child may be enrolled into kindergarten. The director of schools shall develop procedures and forms to implement the provisions of this policy.

No child shall be eligible to enter first grade without having attended an approved kindergarten program.⁶

A child entering a special education program shall be no less than three (3) years of age.⁷

A person eighteen (18) years of age or older who applies for admission must have the application approved by the principal and director of schools when:

1. He/she fails to enroll within thirty (30) calendar days after school officially starts; or
2. He/she has dropped out of school and wants to re-enter.

The compulsory attendance law shall not apply to the following:⁷
